Lis-ten folks — I'm goin' to tell — to you — Oh ba-by's gone an' I'm Engine whistled like it ne-ev-er-er whistled be-fore — Saw him walk in-side, turn a-feel-in' awfull ter-rib-ly blue — Done j'ined the war- an' lef' me all a-lone that's true-round and shut the— door — I felt so bad I nearly fell down on— the floor-Oh I'm blue He lef' a note it was all edged in black
An' what's more two six-teen done carried poor John a-way
Jes' tell-in' me that he nev-er was a com-in' back Jes'
It's a long long way so I heard mos' all the white folks say Yes

stat-en' he — was nev-er nev-er com-in' back — Now that's fact.
two six-teen done took my lov-in' John-ie a-way — T'-other day.
CHORUS.
Eas-y greasy breezy John Eas-y breezy greasy John Makes me blue an' sick an' out an'
down out an' down Eas-y eas-y eas-y breezy greasy John Down the road just as far as I could see Thought I saw my dear old used to be Thought I heard my John-ie call-in' me.

TWO TREMENDOUS DIXIE SONG SUCCESSES.

Sung and hummed everywhere.

Complete Copy 25cts. "WHEN IT'S SPRINGTIME DOWN IN DIXIE LAND." By Jimmy Marten and Mitch Le Blanc.

CHORUS.

When it's springtime down in Dix-ie Land, I long to be with you, In that dear old mossy Dix-ie Land. With you dear just you, Just to say to you That my love is true, No one else will do
And your eyes of blue say you love me too. When it's springtime down in Dix-ie Land I long to be with you.
